How do we use your personal information?

We don't share any of the personal information you provide with others unless we say so in this statement or when we conclude that the law requires it. We may also disclose your personal information if we believe disclosure is necessary or appropriate to protect the rights, property, or safety of Clear Choices, related entities, or affiliates.

We use your address to place pins on our Who Else Is Pledging? map that appears on our Website. The pins show the following information:

- location of the address you provide
- your first name
- your city
- which pledge you took
- our estimated impact of the actions you pledged to take

The map pins do not show your street address, zip code, last name, e mail, or any other information we collect from you.

We keep your information in a database for future reference. We may use certain information you provide to communicate with you about educational information, current events, news, or local events and activities that we believe may be of interest to you. We may disclose aggregated information about our users that does not identify any individual without restriction.

How do we protect the personal information we collect?

We have implemented certain appropriate security measures to help protect your personal information from accidental loss and from unauthorized access, use, or disclosure. For example, we store personal information with restricted access and appropriate monitoring, and we use a variety of technical security measures to secure your data. In addition, we use intrusion-detection and virus-protection software. But please note that we do not guarantee that unauthorized persons will always be unable to defeat our security measures.

Also, please note that we may store and process your personal information in systems located outside of your home country. But regardless of where storage and processing may occur, we take appropriate steps to ensure that your information is protected, consistent with the principles explained in this statement.

Who has access to the personal information?

We will not sell, rent, or lease mailing lists or your personal information to others, and we will not make your personal information available to any unaffiliated parties, except as follows:

- to agents or contractors who may use it on our behalf or in connection with their relationship with us (for example, we may use third parties to help us with promotional campaigns).
- as required by law, in a matter of public safety or policy, as needed in connection with the transfer of our business assets (for example, if we are acquired by another entity or if we are liquidated during bankruptcy proceedings), or if we believe in good faith that sharing the data is necessary to protect our rights or property.

We will not disclose your personal information to unaffiliated third parties, except as necessary to service the account, to enforce the terms of use, to meet our obligations to content and technology providers, or as required by law.

We may also use statistics regarding usage for product-development purposes, but we only use those statistics in the aggregate. They don't include any personal information.
